THE YEAR'S OUTSTANDING BOOKS

THE KINGDOM OF GOD

JOHN BRIGHT. Shedding new light on the familiar phrase "the Kingdom of God," Dr. Bright traces the Kingdom concept from its origin to its fulfillment in the New Testament—and brings out its message and meaning for today. Here is deep and vivid awareness of the unifying theme of the Bible—its redemptive summons to every individual and its challenge to the living church. The New Abingdon-Cokesbury Award Winner. $7.50

THE CHURCH AND SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

J. RICHARD SPANN, Editor. Fifteen writers, each an authority in his field, offer concrete, well-rounded discussions of the social responsibilities of the church in the light of the Christian gospel. An honest and constructive search for truth in many critical areas—an important book for pastors, teachers, all who are sensitive to contemporary issues. $2.75

MANDATE TO HUMANITY

EDWIN McNEILL POTEAT. The Ten Commandments—God's mandate to humanity—speak with compelling urgency to Western man in this searching study. Dr. Poteat explores the history of the Commandments—their background, their meaning to Israel, and their relevance to our own day. Here is a perceptive re-evaluation of the moral basis of our culture—and a challenge to protect it against the aggressions of today. $3.75

PSYCHOLOGY OF PASTORAL CARE

PAUL E. JOHNSON. A comprehensive, definitive survey of pastoral psychology as applied to the entire range of the minister's work—counseling, preaching, administration, community action, etc. Dr. Johnson draws from the best in psychological research and Christian experience to bring ministers and students the what, why, and how of pastoral psychology—sound theory and practical application to help them achieve an effective ministry. $4.75

THE CHRISTIAN APPROACH TO CULTURE

EMILE CAILLIET. The growing isolation of Christianity from our culture—its cause, effect, and remedy. "No one can read this work without being aware that he is in the presence of a brilliant mind, a seasoned scholar, and a fervent spirit. . . . Both instructive and stimulating. . . . Recommended particularly for those whose interest lies in the field of ideas."—Nels F. S. Ferré, in The Christian Century. $3.75

CHRISTIANITY, DIPLOMACY AND WAR

HERBERT BUTTERFIELD. For every thoughtful Christian—a keen, constructive study of the relationship between Christian faith and the problems of our international situation. Dr. Butterfield examines the roles of diplomacy and war in human life—their history, purposes, dangers, and possibilities. He supplies the background and perspective from which every reader can clarify his own thinking on crucial issues of our time. $1.75

RELIGION AS SALVATION

HARRIS FRANKLIN RALL. "I do not know of a comprehensive statement of the Christian faith that would prove more readable and helpful to the layman or minister than this book. . . . The author has the rare gift . . . of speaking on deep subjects in a manner that most of us can understand. . . . A theology of common sense."—The Pulpit. $3

THE GOSPEL AND THE GOSPELS

JULIAN PRICE LOVE. In this fresh and distinctive approach to the New Testament, Dr. Love shows how the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John hold one essential message—Christ's message of redemption. For preacher, teacher, student—for everyone who seeks deeper understanding of the Gospels and their meaning—here is a sound, usable guide. $2.75

THE INTERPRETER'S BIBLE

In 12 Volumes

The only commentary that uses the complete texts of both the Revised Standard and the King James Versions of the Bible—gathers together all that relevant scientific studies have discovered about the Bible—and provides practical help and stimulus in interpreting its truth.

Volume 2—Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy, Joshua, Judges, Ruth, I and II Samuel

Volume 10—Corinthians, Galatians, Ephesians

Each, $8.75

(Five of the twelve volumes—1, 2, 7, 8, and 10—have been published; the others will appear at half-year intervals. Ask your bookseller for complete information.)
